Mrs. Irene Carpenter, Who Died Recently, Was 79 Years Old.

Mrs. Irene Carpenter, widow of the late Martin Carpenter, died on April 11 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Theron D. Spear, on South Main street, after an illness of bright's disease of several months' duration, and the funeral was held from the home of her daughter on the Friday following. Rev. Robert Hazeltine officiating. Interment was in the family lot in the west hill cemetery near the church. Mrs. Carpenter was a highly respected lady and had a large circle of friends who extend sympathy to the bereaved family. She was nearly seventy-nine years old and is survived by four sons and two daughters, William Carpenter of Andover, S. D., Jason Carpenter of St. Johnsbury, Adelbert B. Carpenter of Somerville, Mass., and Walter L. Carpenter of Tunbridge, Mrs. Theron D. Spear of Chelsea and Mrs. William O. Austin of Brookfield, all of whom were present at the funeral. She is also survived by one brother, Lester Bryant of Warren, and one sister, Mrs. Henry Slack of Roxbury. The latter by reason of feeble health was not able to be present at the funeral.

Norman W. Hunt, who for the past twelve years has conducted a barber shop in town, has decided that an out-of-door life will be more congenial and beneficial to his health and has sold his tools and fixtures to Ned A. Griffin, who twelve years ago sold out to Mr. Hunt. Mr. Griffin conducted a shop here several years before selling out to Mr. Hunt. Mr. Hunt will take a little time in looking for a farm which suits him, and when he finds one that pleases him will settle down to farming. His many friends here hope he will be able to find a place which pleases him here in town.

Funeral of Walter Dean Will Be Held Thursday at Newbury Street.

The funeral of Walter Dean, who committed suicide Tuesday forenoon by shooting, will be held at Newbury street on Thursday unless a change is made on the arrival of friends. Mr. Dean was born in Haverhill 45 years ago. Although somewhat reserved in manner, he was generally well liked and respected. He served on the school board two years, which place he resigned before his term expired. He was a good citizen and his untimely end is deplored by the entire community, whose sympathy goes out to the family, especially the aged mother, in their sudden and great affliction. No reason is known for the act except despondency over ill health.

Michael Robinson of Boston is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson, for an indefinite stay.

Alex Hall of Montpelier visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, over Sunday.

A large number gathered at the parlors of the Methodist church Wednesday evening of last week, when a cordial reception of welcome was given Rev. and Mrs. F. T. Clark. The gathering was not confined to members of the Methodist church, but several from the Congregational church and the community at large were present. Rev. and Mrs. F. T. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. George Hopkins were in the receiving line and Irwin Worthley, Leslie Norcross, Charles Haskins, Miss Marjorie Brooks and Miss Gertrude Moore acted as ushers. After a fine program was given, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

The village hall was filled last Friday evening, the occasion being "The Town Thumb Wedding." All those who took part in it were under 10 years of age. The children acted their parts well, causing much laughter. The entertainment was well worth the money.

RANDOLPH

News was received by Ellen Lattimer of the death of Clark Kidder of Rochester, who was the brother-in-law of Mrs. Lattimer. Mr. Kidder was also a cousin of S. C. Clark of this place. The funeral of Mr. Kidder will be held on Thursday at Rochester, and Mrs. Lattimer will leave here that morning for that place.

The meeting of the Christian brotherhood was held in the parish house on Monday evening, with a small attendance. After the lunch, in the absence of Rev. W. T. Sparhawk, who was to be the speaker of the evening and who was detained at home by reason of illness, V. I. Spear, gave the talk, taking for his topic the proposed amendments to the by-laws of the village. Mr. Spear, John DuBois and M. M. Wilson were elected last May as a committee to amend the by-laws, and he spoke on the proposed change.
